conversations on swansong keep going, keep going along the corridor / stream ahead and look to your left / right. if you come here for answers, then you've got the right sort of idea. i went to bradford a couple of years ago, checked into the hotel and then i thought 'i'll just drive up the road'. i was stopped by a policeman who said, "something's going on". so i parked the car and walked. i found a whole load of people flaying their bare bodies with knives, celebrating the day of Ashura, a Shi'a festival. It was snowing and I thought, 'You can never lose in Bradford, visually'.
